April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month, so we invite you to reach for the stars and join us as we raise awareness, protect children, and prevent child abuse. Your attendance helps to make every child feel safe, confident, and cared for through the help of our community.

ABOUT COCA

OUR MISSION

The Council on Child Abuse (COCA) provides educational and public awareness programs to prevent and stop child abuse and bullying where children live, learn, and play.

OUR HISTORY

Since 1978, COCA has been committed to and focused on the prevention of child abuse. COCA has a tradition and reputation for providing effective programs to hundreds of thousands of children and adults focusing on primary services that prevent harm to children.

Through the individual and collective efforts of professional staff and volunteer leadership, the agency continues to strengthen and refine its programs and services to effectively meet current and emerging needs. These services positively impact the children, parents and professionals served each year.

OUR AFFILIATION

With a focus on strategic planning and the sustainability of community programs, COCA became an affiliate of Talbert House in October 2015.
